

A new airside restaurant concept in Heathrow's new Terminal 5 comprises the fitting out of a restaurant to form a Huxleys branded restaurant. Works include partitioning, floor, wall and ceiling finishes, plumbing and electrical services, new fixtures and fittings.

This is one of several units undertaken for this Client and our role has extended to supply chain management and the establishment of building standards.

Quantity Surveyor:
Appleyard & Trew LLP

Architect:
Fusion Design & Architecture

Approximate Value:
£750,000

Procurement:
JCT 2007

PROJECT MANAGERS BUILDING SURVEYORS
CDM CO-ORDINATORS
CHARTERED QUANTITY SURVEYORS

